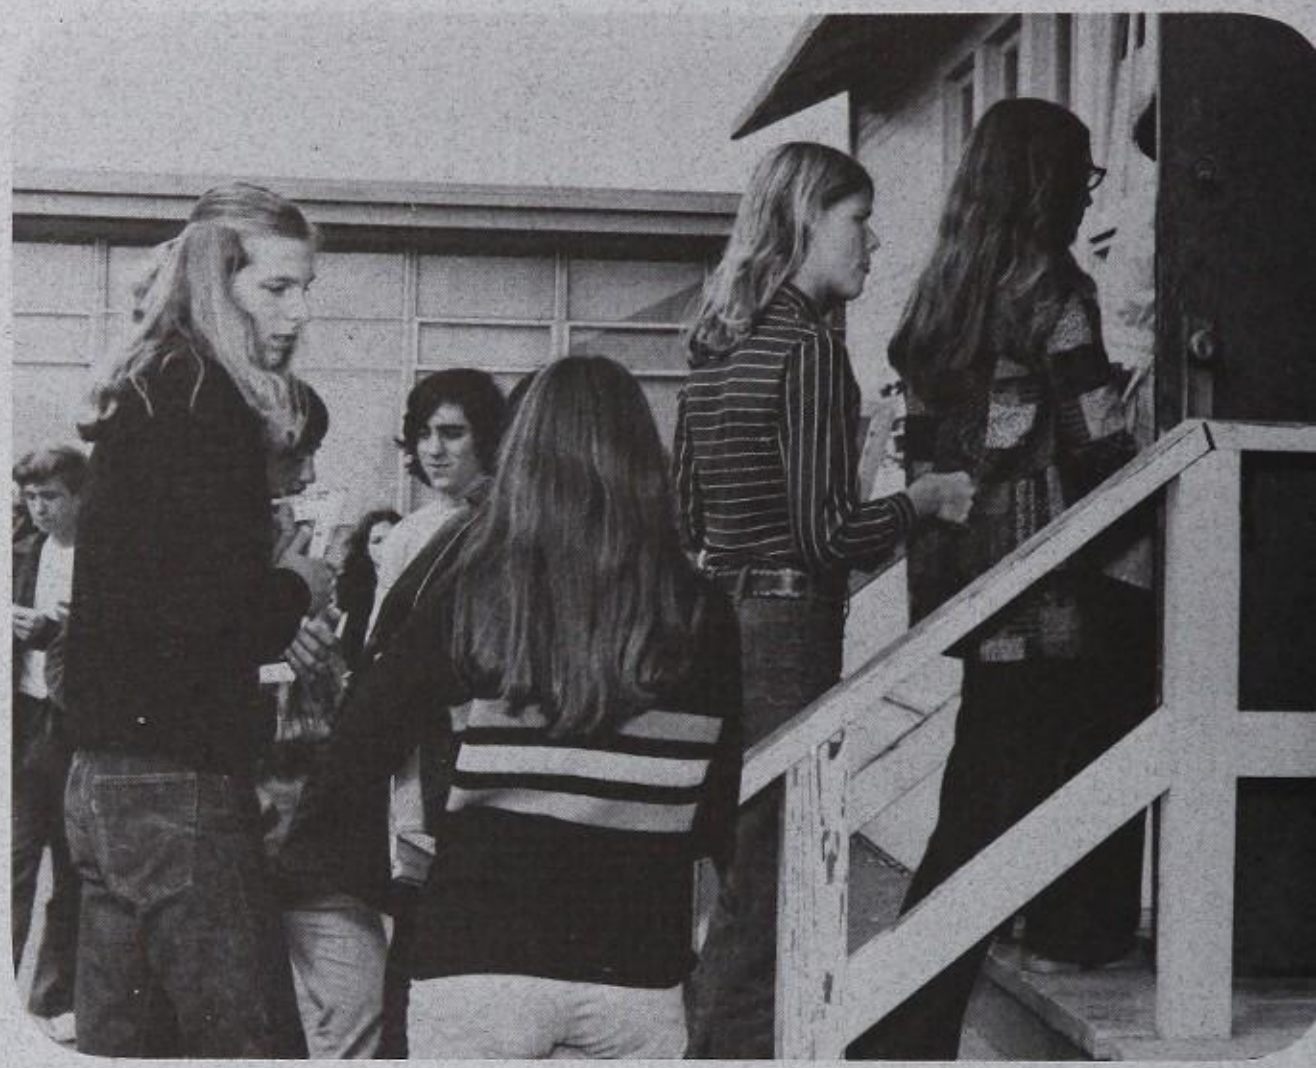
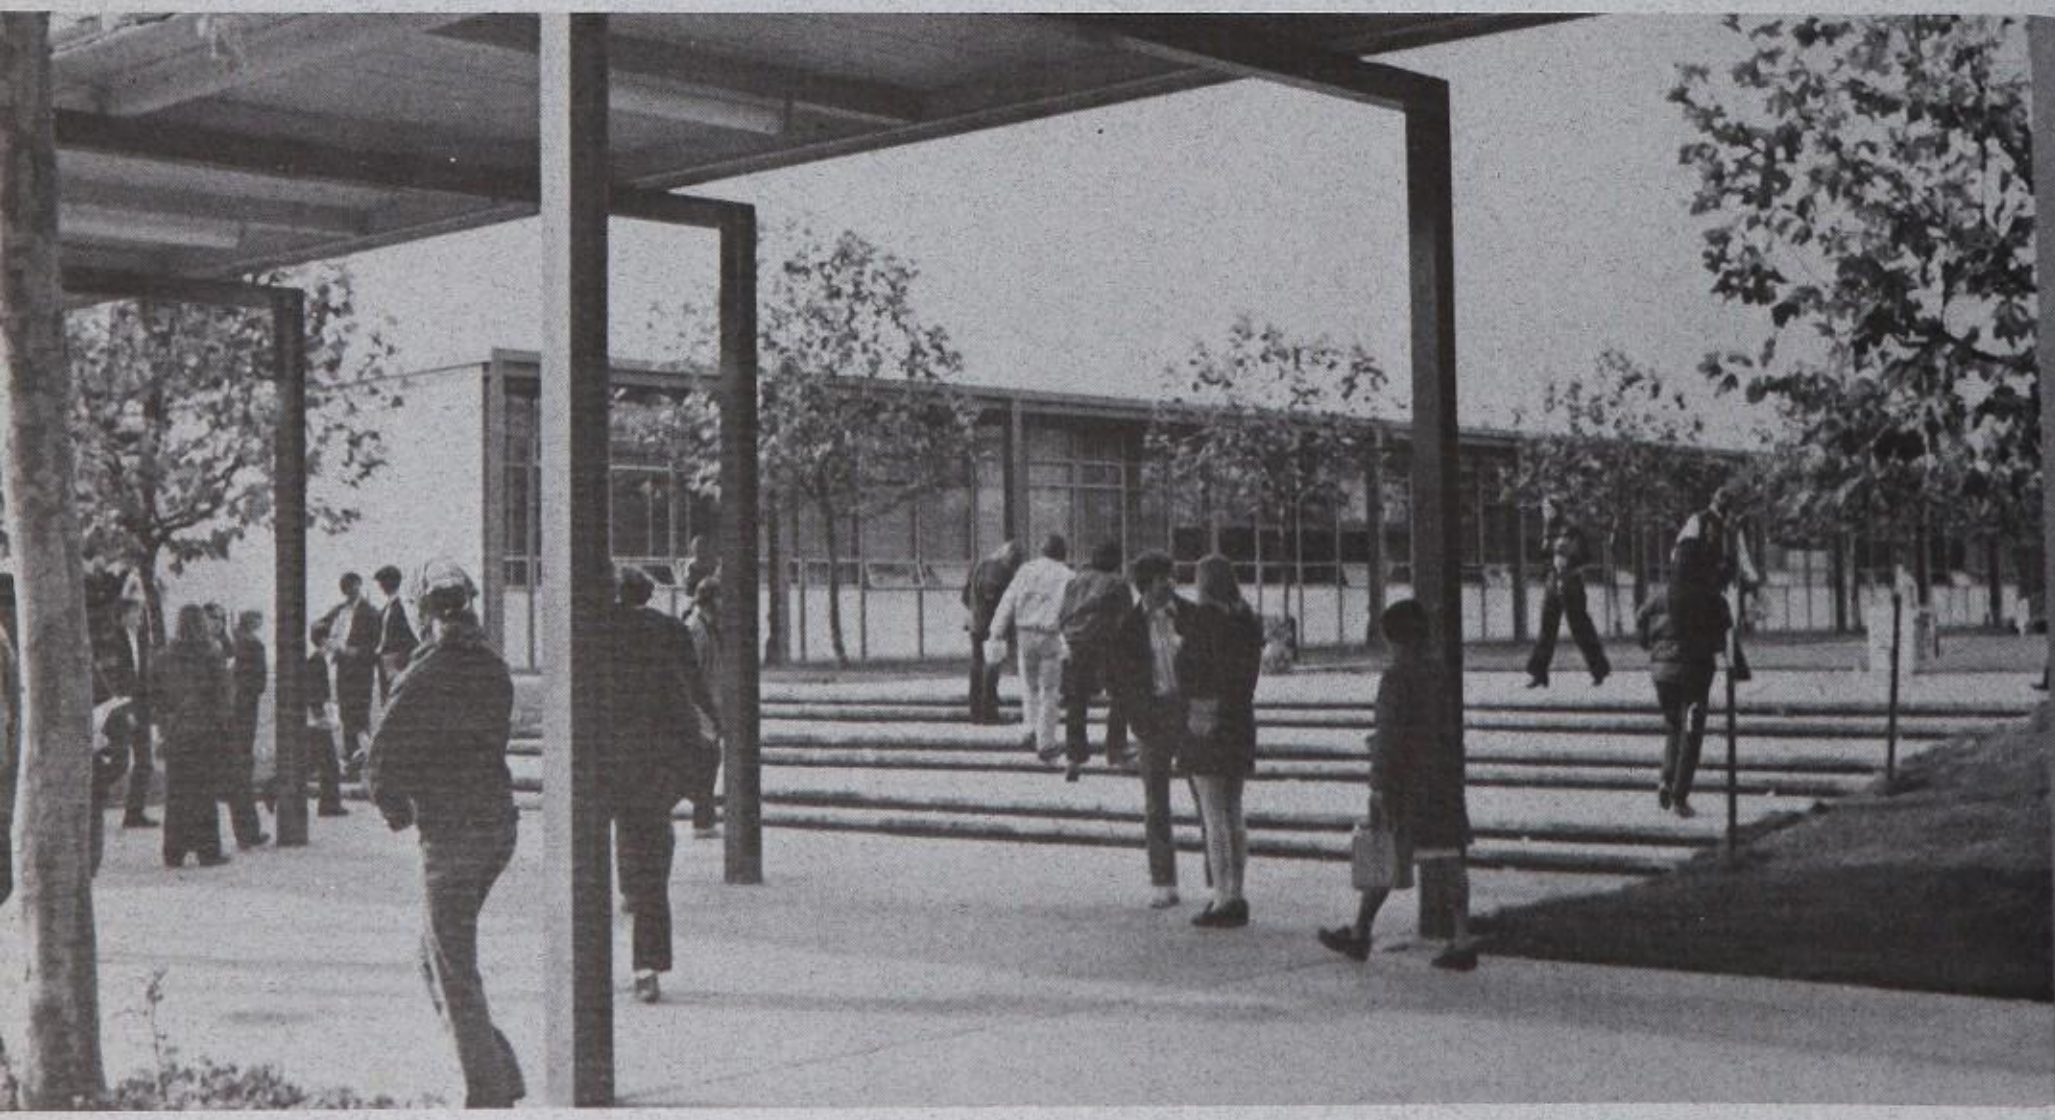
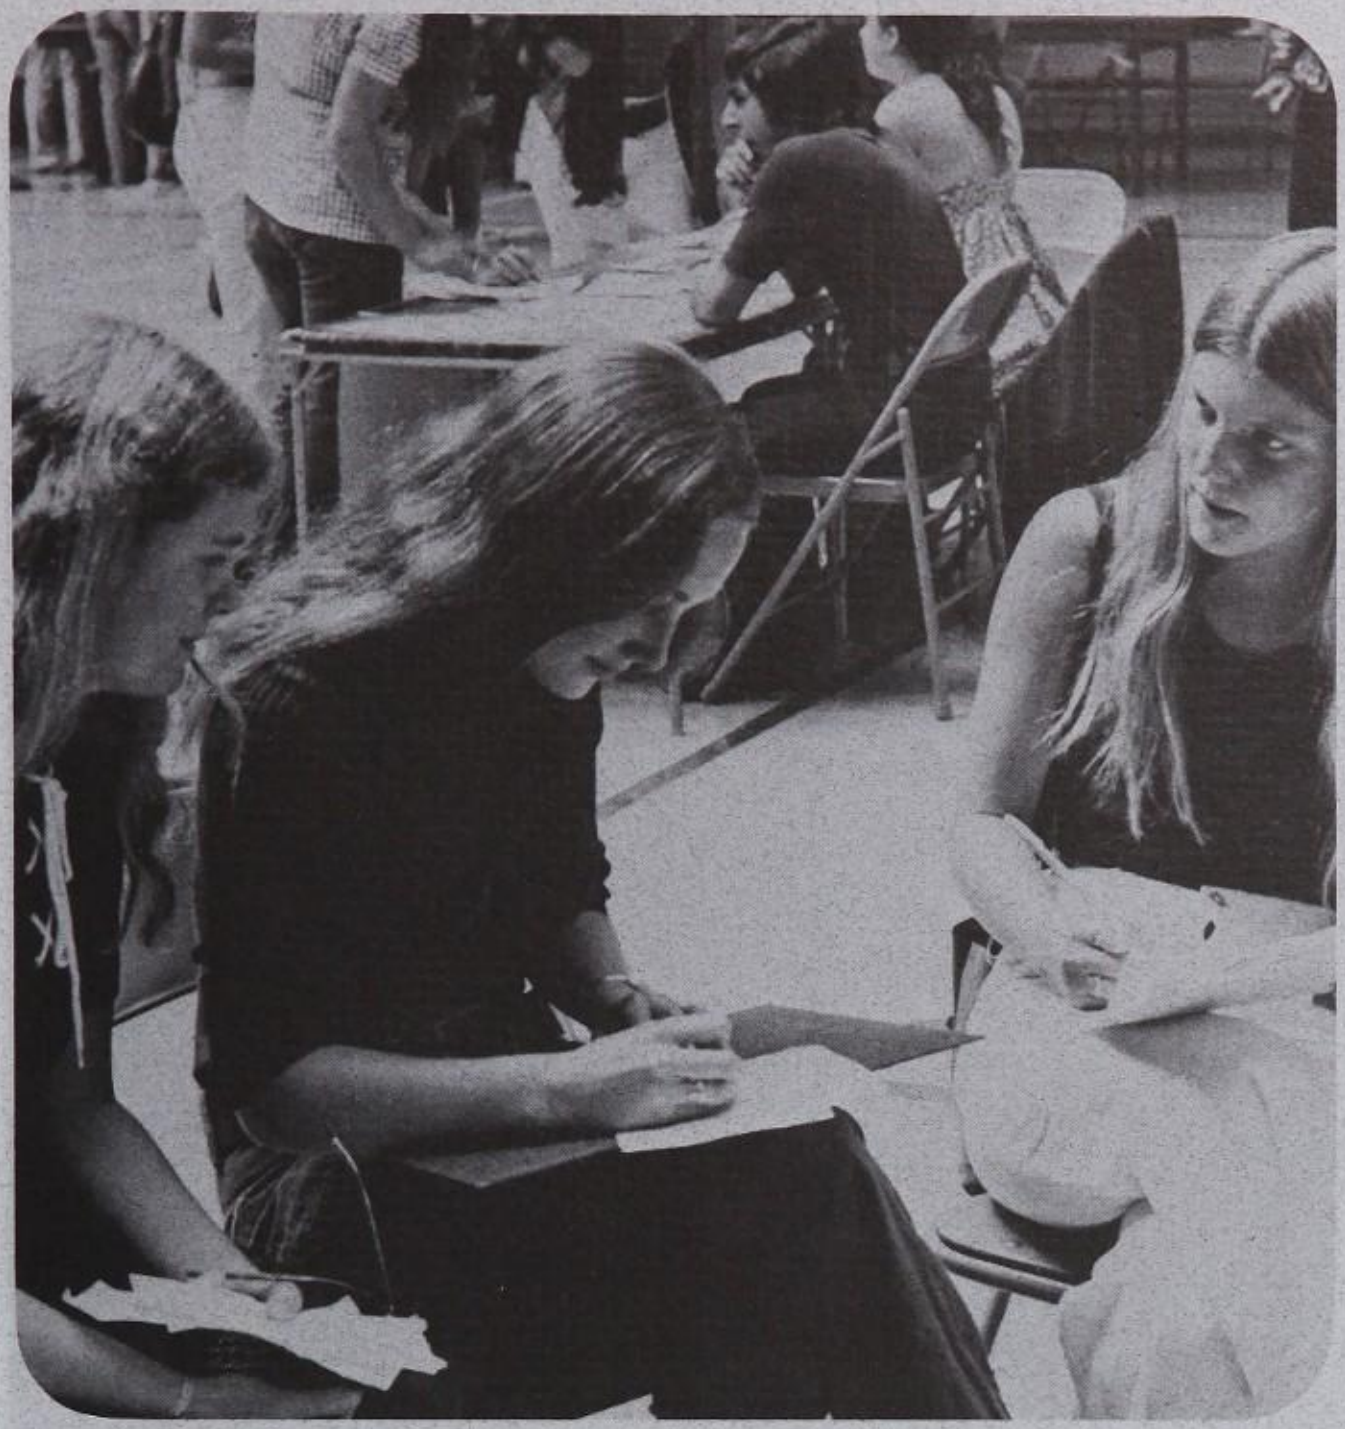
With each day that passes students are able to increase their knowledge by the things they find



Because of longer lunch periods, students Toni Loveland, Jill Peacock, Adrienne Falgot, and Karen Bachand, all part of the class of '75, leisurely filed into class.
Below: Nutrition breaks and time between classes provide students with the opportunity to gather and talk.





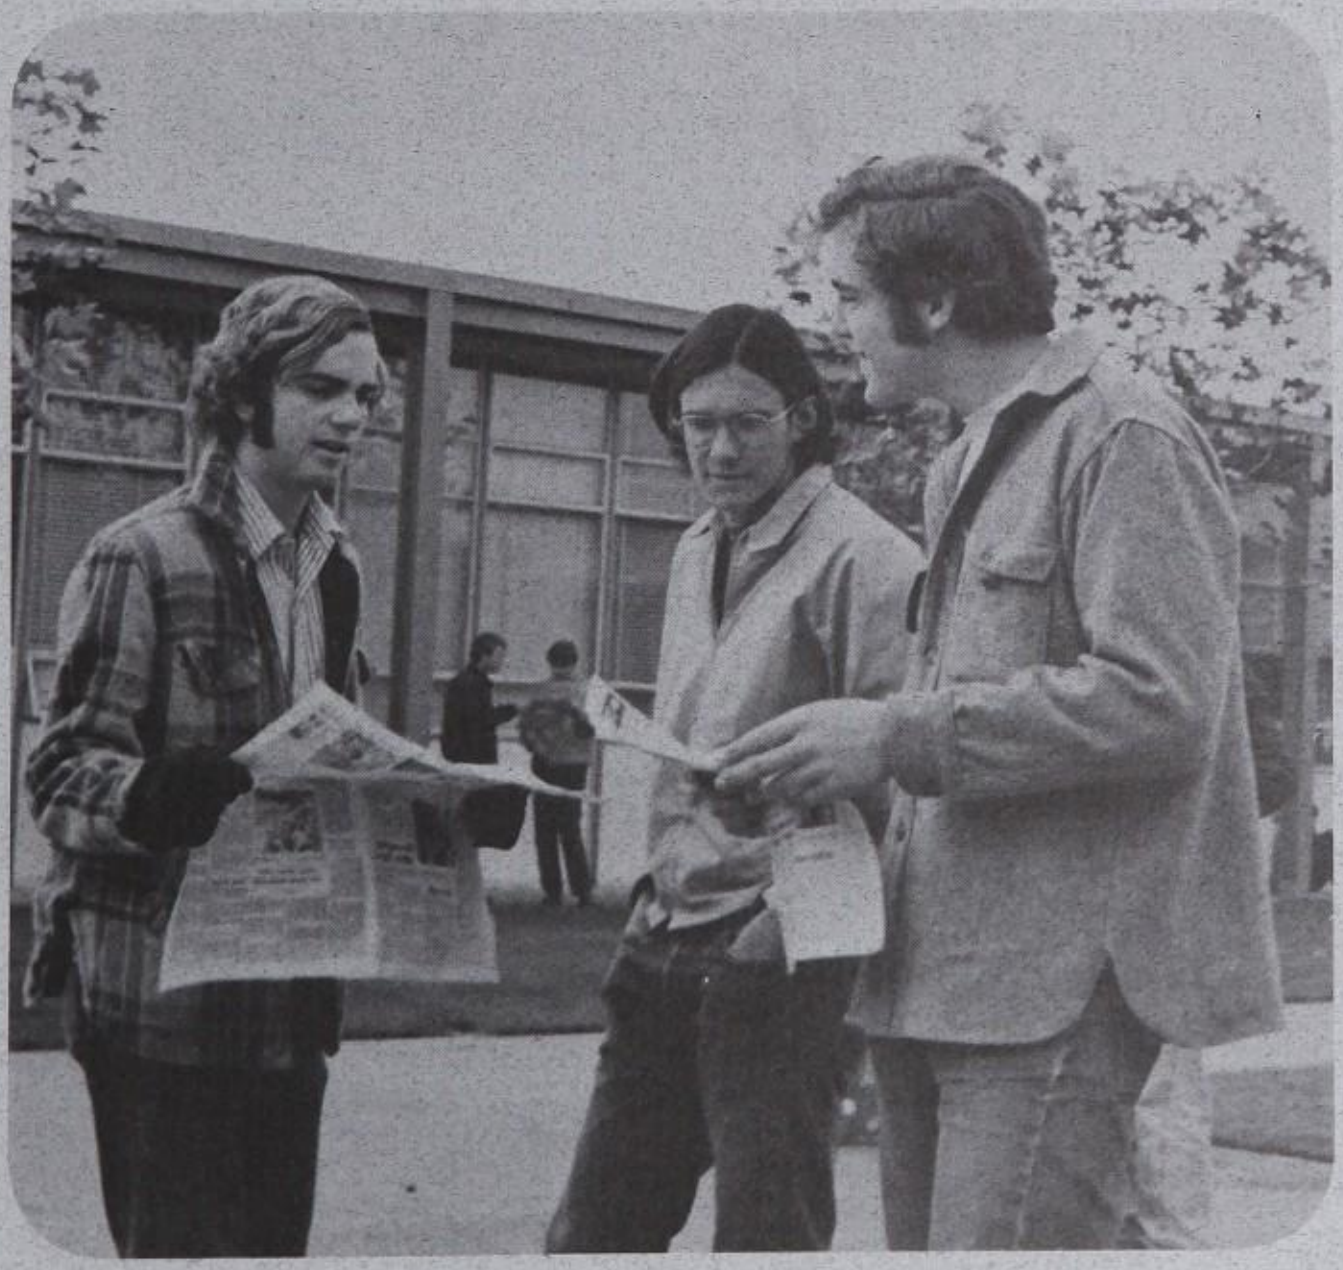
They find exciting innovations

Students scheduled themselves alphabetically rather than by the "first come first served" method in this second Mill. Also, sophomores went through the Mill, adding to the number of people, but not the confusion. Seniors were given first priority, with juniors and sophomores going through a lottery system.

Sally Stallard, Marcia Berman, and Susie Swan talked about their final classes for the year. Below: Karen Freudenthal and Andrew Friend discuss their schedules with Mr. Richard Campbell and Mr. Maurice Besse.

They find joy with other people

Rosemary Williams, Marsha Lee, Charolette Utsey, Sandra Hammons, and Rita Hargrove find each other to talk before lunch.
Below: Tammy Kuvetakis, Alichi Tzouras, and Angela Stephanos are happy to hear they have an extra holiday.
Below right: Rick Baron and Leanne McDonnel enjoy each others company in the sunlight.

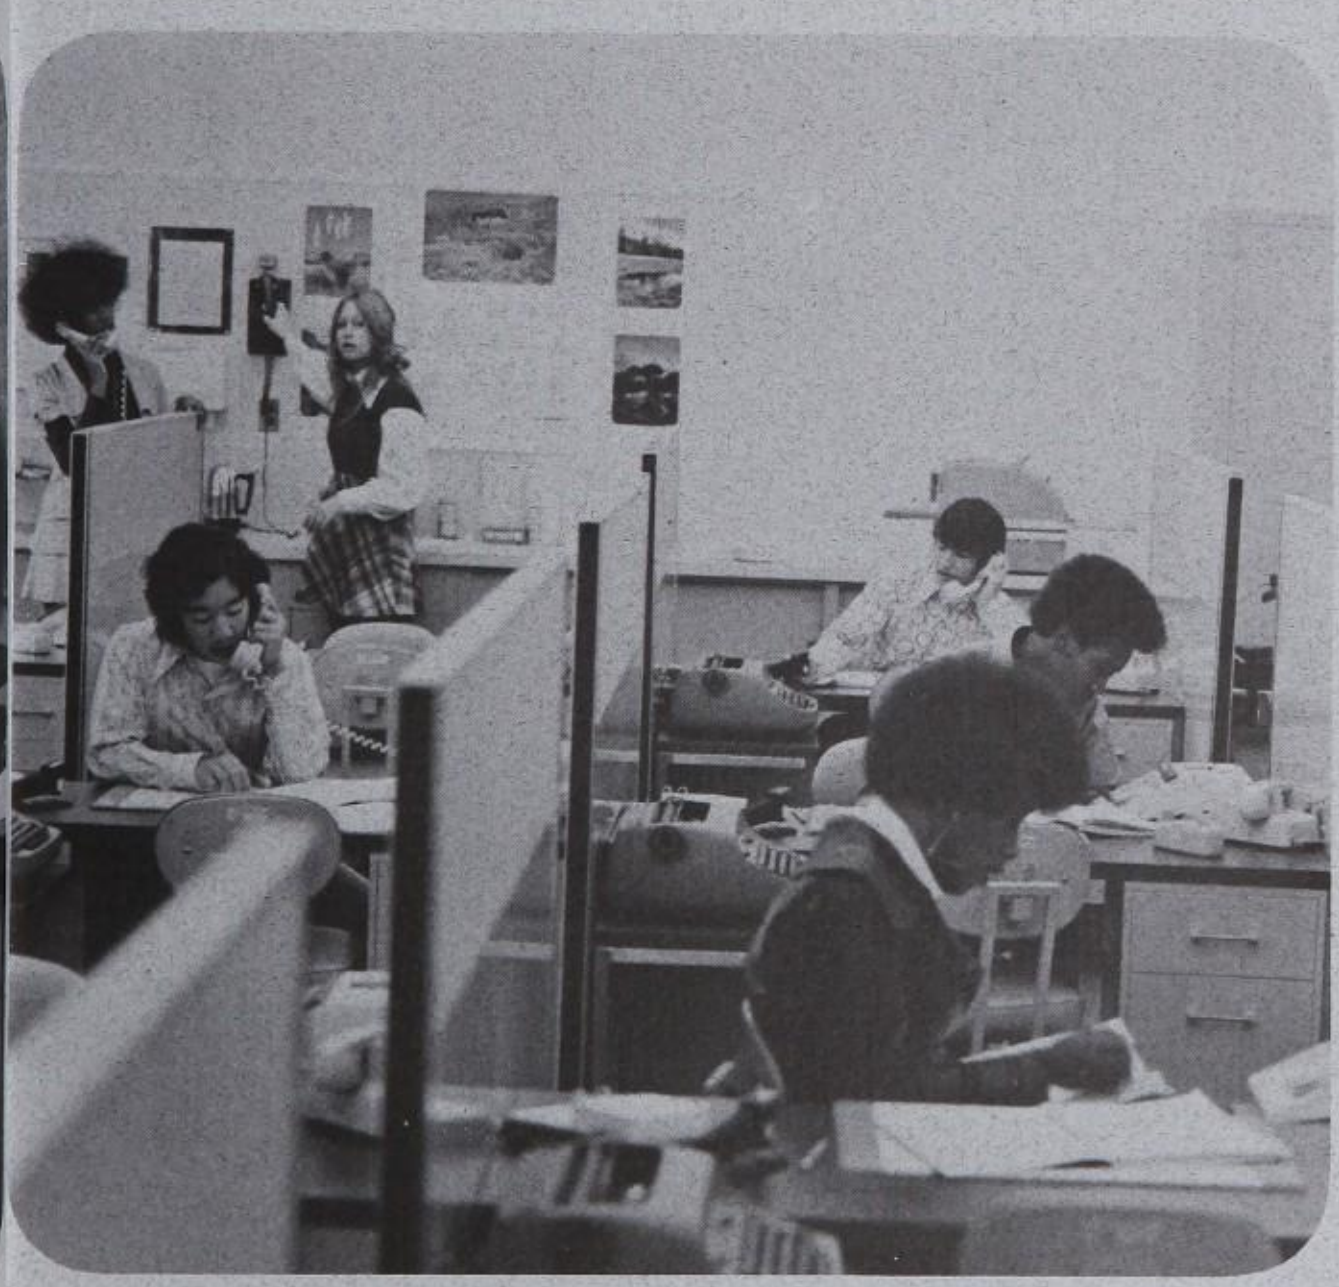


Marching to promote the Art and Culture Fair which was held on May 18 and 19 are Vera Comeralto, Terri Jones, and Maria Reveiz.

John Vallerga, Ron Floriani, and Jim Mosle discuss the editorial section of the Oracle.
Above: Lunch group gathers daily to talk about the morning classes. Included are Leslie Bridges, Lorraine Aochi, and Sue Brown.

Mr. Larry Mattal, adviser, discusses with teaching assistants Tom Slater and Roger Wildensten plans for the coming year.

Below: Deeply engrossed in insurance business are Executive Vice-President Roger Wildensten, Doug Ashley and Executive Secretary Carolyn Pitcock.



They find experience to further careers

One of Skyline's newest and more interesting classes was Project Invest, known as auto insurance class. This new concept in education was brought to Skyline by Oakland Insurange Agents. Mr. Larry Mattal was chosen to pilot the course, while seniors Roger Wildensten and Tom Slater were selected as student teachers.
The course was taught in a simulated insurance office equipped with wall to wall carpeting, drapes and beautiful furniture.
The main teaching aids were movies and guest speakers. The students were taught underwriting, policy writing, accounting, switchboard operation and agency procedure. The two period course was business-like in every way — from coffee breaks to the manner of dress. After the students learned the procedure of an agency, they set up a home office where they performed all the functions of an agency.

Busy at work at their individual agencies are Harry Locke, Alberta Jackson, Gayland Jenkins and Bob Joyce. Standing are Cheryl Dunwood and Carolyn Pitcock.

Above: Surveying the insurance office for the first time, Principal David Swanson voices his approval to adviser Mr. Larry Mattal and assistant Roger Wildensten.

They find time for intervals of fun, laughter

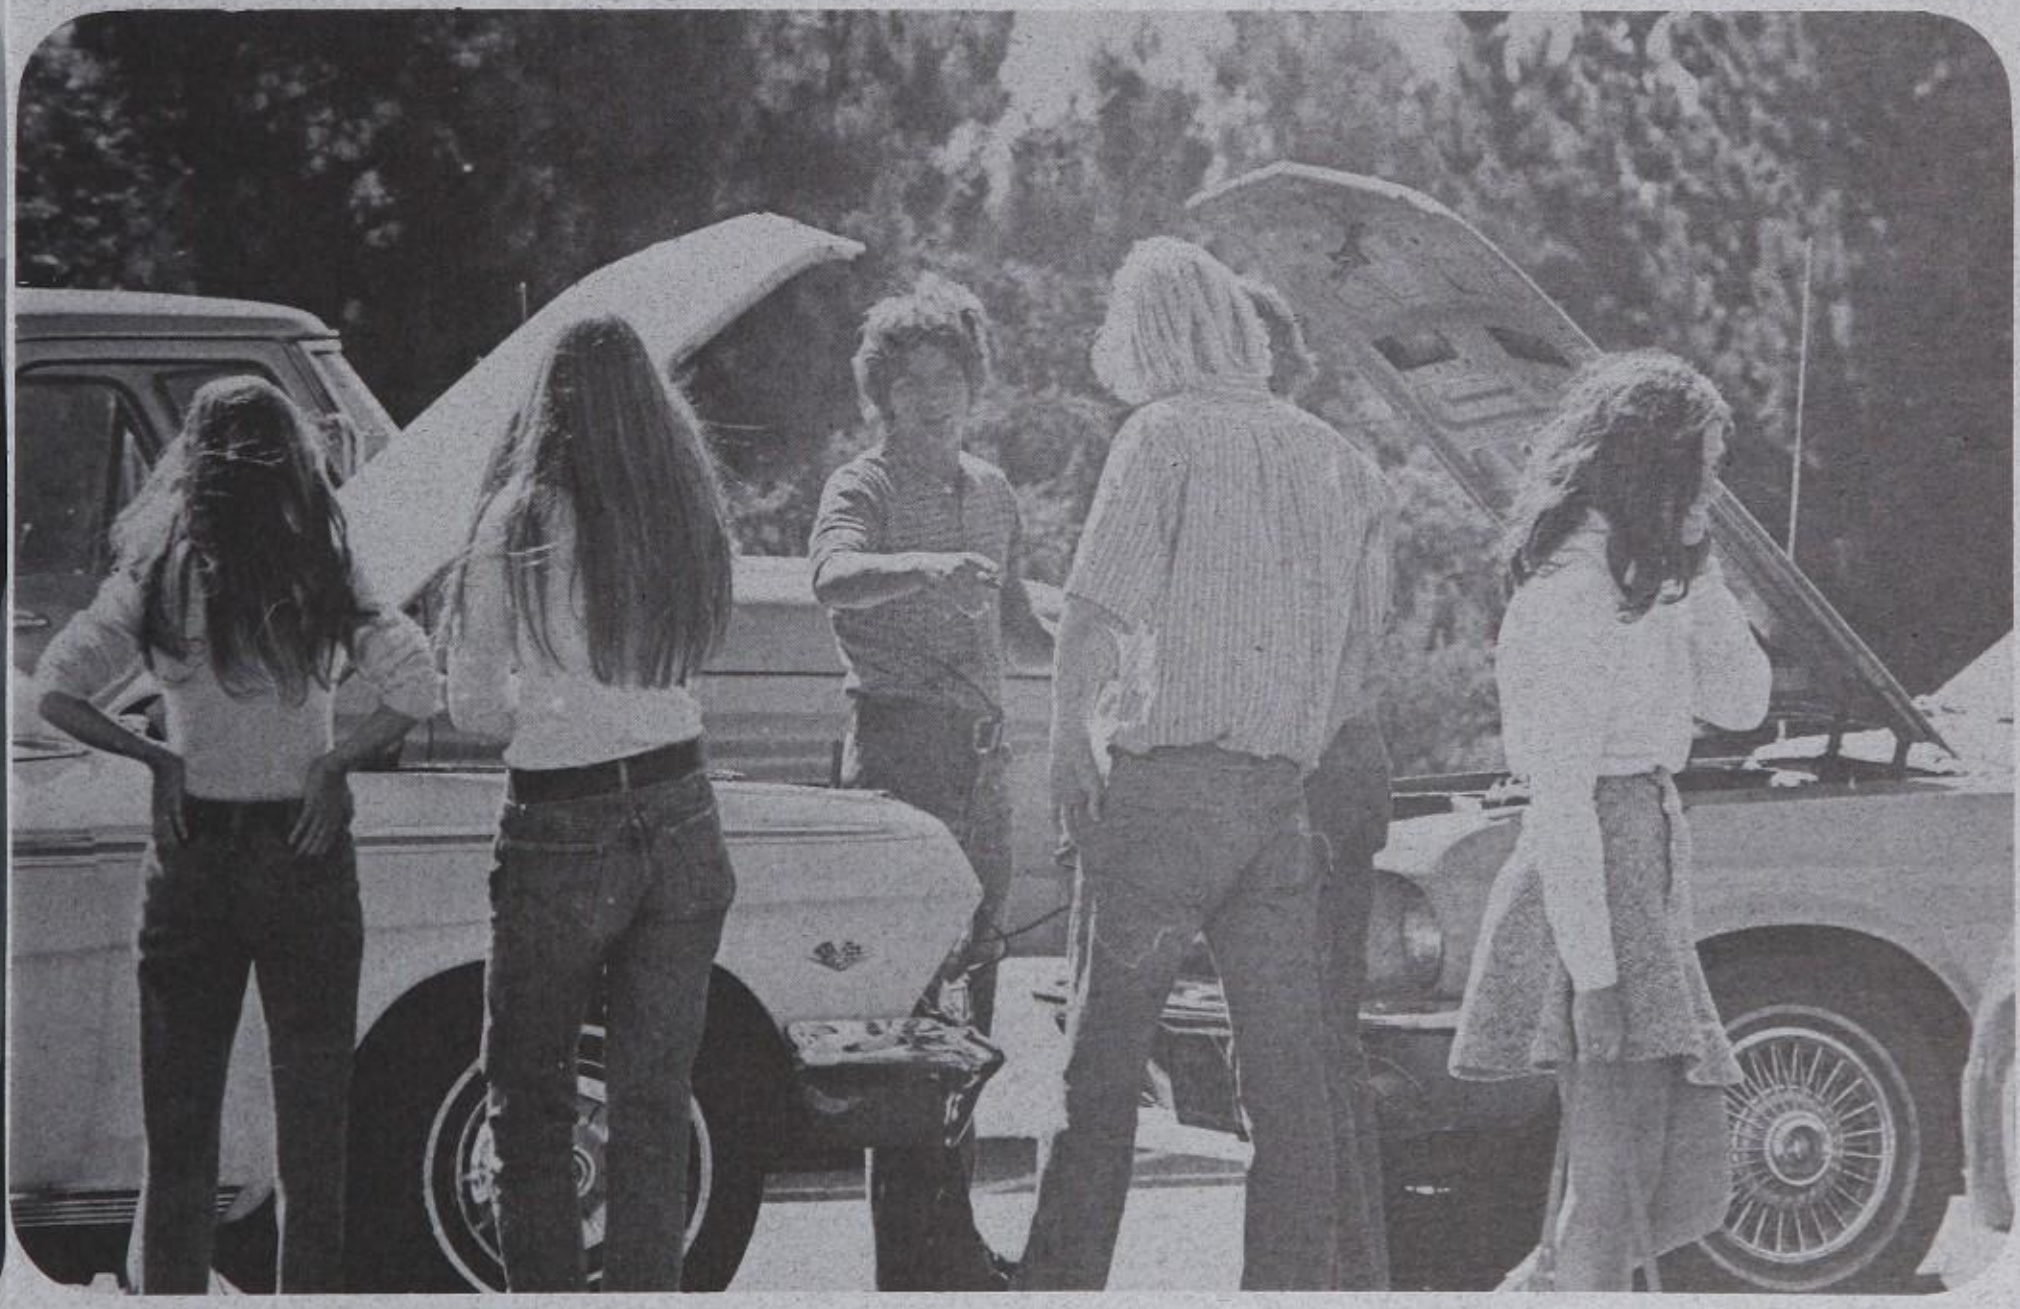
Right: Bob Silva, Judy O'Young, and Ron Floriani relax from the work of Student Government.

They find happiness in working together

Mrs. Lauretta Williams gives needed assistance to Randy Hawkins and Sue Fuhrman.

Below: Jeff Hansen comes to the aid of desperate girls Nancy Dahl, Marcella Moal, and Georgeianne Antone.



They find varied ways to become motivated

Division of Interdisciplinary Studies, formerly School Within a School, is in its second year of existence. The alternative program to traditional regimented learning broadened its activities even further this year. Along with standard classes, learning experiences ranged from law studies to belly-dancing, human development to photography.

Student teacher Bill Forsberg assists Sue Anderson with her trash bag in the garbage pick up contest.

Observing sea life are Dr. Darl E. Bowers, Vinka Lekich, and Nancy Jordan on the Marine Biology excursion.

Linda
Well I've known you for about two years and I hope
I know you for many more. Drop by this summer. Heidi

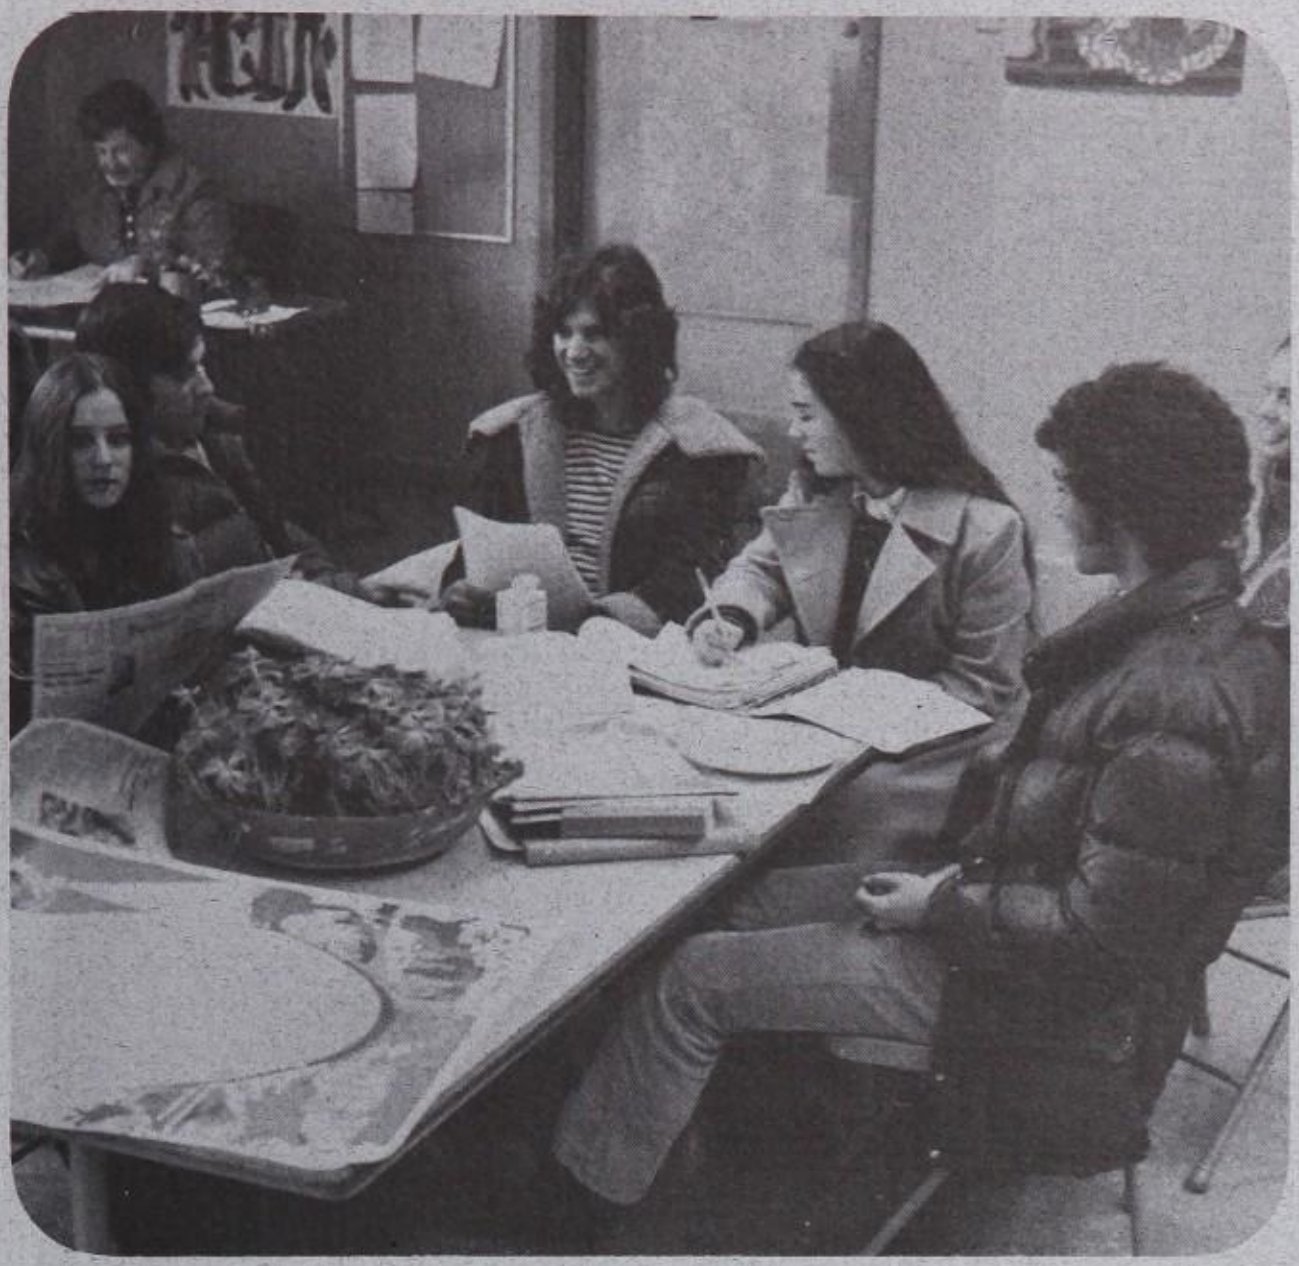
They find time to develop unexplored talents

Mrs. Joanne McKray leads the rehearsal for the opening night of the Fall Concert. Below: Claudia Christesen and John Gilkerson portray dramatic roles in the term play. Below right: Listening to the guitar playing are Debbie Pirack and Kim Rudisill.



They find knowledge through societies' problems

With the help and supervision of Mrs. Cathey Selna and the assistance of Hill Swimmer and Steve Selna Skyline's Student Information Center was formed. A steering committee was organized consisting of students interested in educating the students on issues and topics relevant to society. One of the major events, sponsored by SIC was a Political Awareness Day which dealt with representatives and candidates who ran in the November election.

Discussing school problems, is a group led by Hill Swimmer, junior.
Below: Mrs. Grace Aikawa is helping out with some of the paper work.
Below left: Don Carter, senior, pondering over a deep thought in the quiet of the Center.

Linda,
Have a beautiful summer, and good luck in the years to come. I am glad that I got to meet you, take care
PS Maybe I will see you in the summer.

They find peace in learning about themselves, others

Adapting to the emptiness of the hall, senior, Brian Eng leaves school.

Highlighting the year's responsibilities, Mr. David Swanson spear-headed a committee to form an excursion to Sacramento to impress upon the legislature the need for more money. All Oakland Public Schools were closed for a day to allow faculty, students, and parents to participate in the trip.

Vice-principals Clarence Warren and Sid Simonson headed boy's discipline. Mr. Simonson also planned the master program and scheduled teachers, while Miss Wilma Lorentz managed girls' discipline and also sponsored Zonta Club.

Counselor jobs are eased

More time was given to counseling students, and less time to program changes because of the success of the self scheduling Mill system.

Head counselor Mr. Henry Bianchi, ever ready with a pleasant smile, handled the overall program planning.

Miss Alta Bassett took charge of the Inter-Work Experience program on the retirement of Miss Valerie Brenan.

Mrs. Marjorie Beach, Mrs. Juanita Thomas, and Mrs. Faye Smith shared responsibility of scholarships, the College and Scholarship Club, and testing.

Mr. Martin Jemo relayed the latest college information on to the students.

Also organized by the counselors is a new College Career Center, located next to the conference room.

Special staffs keep school in order

Under the guidance of Miss Helen Desort, the physically handicapped program covered many fields of learning. These included a program for educationally handicapped, headed by Mrs. Margaret Pickford. Mrs. Mary Thompson taught the oral-deaf classes, while Mrs. Marja Virjo directed the learning adjustment program.

Headed by Mr. John Cordano, the custodial staff managed to keep the campus beautiful, despite the decrease in funds, and the increase in students.

Mrs. Mildred Marcus headed the Human Relations department again this year, although she worked from the regional office.

Not pictured is the school librarian Mrs. Lauretta Williams, who keeps the library in good order.

Able clerks enter records

Without Skyline's able secretaries, the school could not function. Dean of secretaries, Ms. Cleo Metzner eases the principal's job, while Mrs. Lynn Sutton makes some of the daily pressures in the counselors' office tolerable. Mrs. Alice Gardner keeps the vice principals' office in good order while maintaining the attendance office are Miss Barbara Tabler and Mrs. Gen Quan. Mrs. Mary Fisher handled all of the student transcripts. Mrs. Fern Brown relieved Mrs. Grace Ford in the treasury office for a four month period. Answering the health needs of Skyline students was Miss Ann Potter.

Co-educational classes bring students together

Bachelor living and needlecraft classes marked change in home economics, and were responsible for expanding learning.

Due to this increased interest, the food classes were divided into beginning and advanced studies. While boys became involved in home economics, girls became intrigued with the industrial arts and enrollment was noticeably enlarged.

Electronics classes continued plans for an FM station, which on completion will broadcast in the Eastbay.

Godspell music is feature at fall program

Music from "Godspell" was performed by the vocal choir and orchestra on Fall Music Night under the directions of Mrs. Joanne McKray and Mr. Richard Adams.

The choir was involved with new activities which included the University of California Madrigal Festival in Berkeley, where many high school vocal groups performed. The group participated in an event where nationally known choral conductors commented and worked with the choir. The band and orchestra were involved in a festival of the California Music Educator's Association in Berkeley.

Among other various activities, there was the Spring Music Night and My Fair Lady. Both departments were called upon throughout the year to perform for organizations off campus.

Staff members give book new aspect

Working diligently to produce a new format, Olympian staff members labored many hours to bring new ideas to the yearbook of 1973. A color foldout and a unique opening and closing section added to the personality of the book. Adviser Mrs. Pege Rankin and the large staff found it very difficult to meet deadlines with just half the time which was alloted to last year's staff.

Ever present deadlines haunt Oracle staff

Deadlines were always pushing the 1973 Oracle staff. Around campus, photographers took pictures assigned to them and reporters gathered news for the up-coming edition. Assigning stories, planning dummies, cropping pictures, and visiting the print shop for last minute checks were some of the tasks the staff of the Oracle faced each issue.

Busy working on the paste-up for the next Oracle are Hank Wirta, Mark Kadden, Phillip Way, and Kathy Graydon.

In memoriam

Three passions, simple but overwhelmingly strong, have governed my life: The longing for love, the search of knowledge, and unbearable pity for the suffering of mankind. These passions, like great winds, have blown me hither and thither, in a wayward course, over a deep ocean of anguish, reaching to the very verge of despair.

I have sought love, first, because it brings ecstasy — ecstasy so great that I would often have sacrificed all the rest of life for a few hours of this joy. I have sought it, next, because it relieves loneliness — that terrible loneliness in which one shivering conciousness looks over the rim of the world into the cold unfathomable lifeless abyss.

. . . With equal passion I have sought knowledge . . . I have wished to understand the hearts of men. I have wished to know why the stars shine.

. . . Love and knowledge, so far as they were possible, led upward toward the heavens. But always pity brought me back to earth . . . the whole world of loneliness, poverty, and pain make a mockery of what human life should be. I long to alleviate the evil, but I cannot, and I too suffer.

This has been my life. I have found it worth living, and would gladly live it again if the chance were offered me.

Well Linda,
Another year has gone by. My picture isn't in here, it wasn't good enough, so you'll have to remember me by this and other statements be made.
Remember me when:
1. you think of marions love affairs
2. when you think of gym
3. when you think of Led Zepplin
4. If you don't remember that, and you see a lid of acapolco gold, its the color of my eyes.
So Shine,

The vigorous life is it really?

Titans have 'best yet' record

In the last Oakland Athletic League game, the Titans lost to the Oakland Wildcats, breaking their perfect record, and hopes of a championship all their own.

After a 21-12 trouncing over rival Piedmont High and a last second heartbreaking loss to Buscher High, the Titans started the 1972 OAL season with an impressive 29-0 shut out over Tech.

Skyline launched its attack on the Bulldogs by running halfback Mark Palamore eight yards through the Bulldog line, scoring six points for the Titans. A short pass to Dave Blueford gave Skyline a 16-0 lead at halftime. The Titan defense was even more impressive by not only keeping Tech scoreless, but also adding scores with a two point safety and a interception run for a touchdown. The game ended Skyline 29, Tech 0.

The Titans next played Castlemont in a "must win" game. The Titans could not generate much offense, but in the third quarter the Skyline machine, eager for the win, began to move, and Skyline scored two more times, ending the game in a 21-8 victory.

McClymonds was Skyline's third straight victim as the Titans smacked Mack with a 23-12 whipping in a beautiful day for Skyline's homecoming. Ron Brown, Dwight Wright and Mark Palamore all scored touchdowns and Kevin Schreiber contributed a record forty-five yard field goal to top off the scoring for Skyline. Traveling to Fruitvale field, the Titans faced the tough Fremont Tigers. Heavy rains dampened the field but not the spirit of the game. Once again the awesome defense did its job holding the Tigers to eight points, and stopping three separate goal line drives. Skyline offense scored only twice, but it was enough to out last Fremont 15-8.

Skyline	36- 6	Fremont
Skyline	28- 0	Oakland

With the championship at stake, Skyline's junior varsity beat the Oakland JV team 28-0. There was no score at halftime, but the offense scored 28 points while the stingy JV defense held Oakland scoreless in the second half. The Titan win was truly a team effort.

After destroying all of their pre-season opponents, the junior varsity gridders powered their way to an excellent season which ended in a co-championship. In the Oakland Athletic League opener, the JV's shutout Tech, 14-0. The second game against Castlemont was tough, but the eager JV's pulled it out to win 21-24.

Traveling to McClymonds, Skyline suffered a 22-24 upset by the Warriors. The final two games were at home, and with the championship in reach, the team fought its way to beat Fremont 36-6.

Basketball team goes through league in cellar

Skyline's basketball team was not able to keep up with the caliber of talent in the Oakland Athletic League this year. Finishing last in OAL basketball, however, does not indicate a poor team. The Titans placed two men on the All-city team, Bill Belford and Henry Randolph. With only Greg Leonard and Marzine Parker returning from last year's varsity the Titan hoopsters lacked experience which may have lost them a few tight games. Returning to next year's varsity are Brian Chapman, Brad Hebert, Art Dinkins and Henry Randolph.

Harriers repeat as champions

Once again Skyline's cross country team swept the Oakland Athletic League, taking five out of the first seven All-City positions. Rain canceled the first two meets with McClymonds and Oakland Tech. Finally underway, the Titans wiped out Castlemont 15-49; Fremont 15-50, a perfect score and Oakland 18-43.

At the league finals the Harriers finished on top, placing John Johnson first, Duaine Booth third, Dave Moles fourth, Piet Visser fifth, and Kent Mulkey seventh.

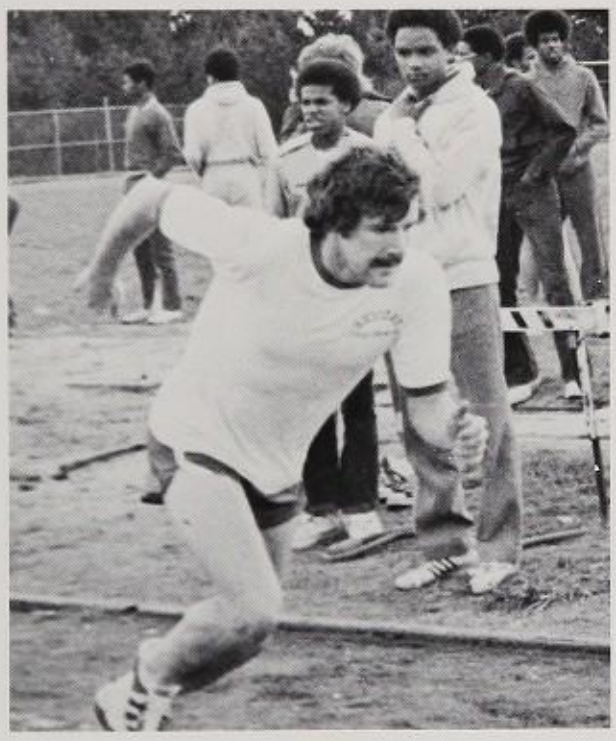
Track program is being rebuilt



Completely rebuilding the track and field teams after 72's disappointing last place finish, the Titans decided it was time to put together a winning team. Coach Fritz Sparks was acquired as an assistant from Oakland High. In his first year at Skyline Coach Sparks has already produced some top East Bay athletes. Bob Watters attended the Athens Indoor track meet and went home with the first place trophy for the shot put event. He competed against athletes from all over the state. The 440 relay team is rated by the sports writers as one of the top in the East Bay.

Soccer team finishes fourth

Fourth in standing, the soccer team finished the Oakland Athletic League with three All-city team members. Selected as OAL All-city first team were three Titans, Don Craig, fullback, Ron Floriani, forward, and Dave Thorne, halfback. Second All-city team consisted of Gary Fraser, Leland Heiner, forwards, and Omar Suer, goalie. Coached by Mr. Richard Ott, the team is in its third OAL season. Acting as sponsor for the third year was Mr. Leonard Yager, a gym teacher from Montera Junior High School

Golfers have good season

Returning from an outstanding season, Skyline's golf team dominated Oakland Athletic League action and non-league play as well. Last year Skyline won its tenth championship and this year the eleventh was easily taken. The course used for this year's practice was Lake Chabot Municipal Golf Course. An addition to the team was a new coach, Mr. Paul Berger.

Swimmers strive to retain title

Under the direction of Coach Fred Noel, the boy's swim team members worked to win their tenth consecutive Oakland Athletic League championship.

Since entering the league in 1964, the finmen have never been short of first place.

With the help of seven returning lettermen, the team worked to make this year as successful as last year's 4-0 reocrd.

Due to the lack of an on campus pool, the swimming team began workouts in February at Robert's Pool.

Gymnasts vie for top place

Performing without defeat to an anticipated Northern California Championship was the 1973 gymnastic team rated by Coach Ira "Bud" Call as the 'Team of the Decade.' Outstanding senior performers were the Hansen brothers, Greg and Jeff all around, and Cris Wright on rings and floor exercise. Specialists on the pommel horse were Doug Rundle and Doran Newhart. Excelling on the rings were Jeff Bruno and Cory Franzini. Junior members participating on the team were Derrick Wong and Rick Hanan.

Ski team works for perfection

Beginning the year with a record turnout of thirty, the ski team looked forward to a successful season. For the first time the Inter-scholastic ski federation was divided into two divisions; the A league consisting of ten schools, Skyline's league, and the AA league consisting of six schools. To keep in top physical condition the members worked out on the campus as well as on the snow. The team, headed by Eugene Rockeman, raced at ski resorts such as Mammoth, Alpine Meadows and Heavenly Valley.

Sluggers defend championship

With the return of Coach George Powles and the needed help from John Lagos, the Skyline Sluggers were anxious to capture the outright title for the second straight year. This year's cast of players consisted of sluggers Hank Wirta, Alfonso Carmona, Buddy Goldstone, Jim Sullivan and Donn Falaschi. In addition, the Titan's pitchers Louis Bixler, Randy Nelson and Robert Haight were consistent. Other standouts were Rob Rovetta, Dan Eng, Rick Beren and Walt Boyle.

Girls, athletes assist teachers in supervising school activities

Block S is an organization consisting of athletes who have earned their letters in various sports at Skyline. The club patrolled basketball games and helped control assemblies, members also handled security for the International Fair. Officers are Kent Mitchell, president; Marzine Parker, vice president; Stacy Baba, secretary and Bob Watters, sergeant at arms.

Helping teachers conduct their classes were the teen teachers, sponsored by Miss Helen Baker. The girls presented the flag at the fifth annual Girls' Boosters Night. Meetings were held on the first Wednesday of every month.

Honor society helps organize in Mill

By attending basketball and football games, the Spartan Service Society helped to ease the task of faculty supervision. Attending numerous other school activities Triple S helped supervise the Mill for the second consecutive year. 'Night of the Iguana' displays new talent in fall play Joining those screen immortals Eva Gardner and Richard Burton, Dan Finnamore and Dorthy Calimeris played the lead roles in the fall play "The Night of the Iguana." The production was one of the most mature and modern plays that has ever been presented at Skyline.

Under the direction of drama teacher Rawley T. Farnsworth, the performances were held on both Friday and Saturday.

Actual use of water as rain produced by the stage crew added a note of realism to the Mexican setting.

Listening as John Gilkerson speaks of his past experiences are Dan Finnamore and Claudia Christensen.

"Fair Lady" gains approval

"My Fair Lady," a popular Broadway musical and film was presented by the fine arts department in March. Mr. Rawley Farnsworth, Mrs. JoAnne McKray Mr. Richard Adams, Miss Elyse Dukatz, Mr. William Rader and over 100 students worked to make this musical adaptation of Pygmalion the great success it was.

Bunny Sims as Eliza Doolittle and John Gilkerson as Professor Henry Higgins played the leading roles. For the first time in Skyline's history three evening performances were given. Attended by more people than any other event at Skyline the play also proved to be the biggest financial success ever.

Sponsored by Mrs. Jean Cosad, CSF contained students who were among the most academically talented in the state.

Scholarship Club

By touring college campuses, students of the Scholarship Club were able to receive an introduction to college life. The club was sponsored by Mrs. Juanita Thomas.

Bowling Club

Bowling enthusiasts formed a new club which got off to a striking start. Sponsored by Mrs. Thelma Williams, club members were presented with team shirts. Trophies were awarded at the end of competition.

Looking through catalogues in order to decide what college they will visit next are officers of the Scholarship Club Felicia Keys, Ivette Logan, Charlotte Butler, and Joyce Harris.

Distributive Education Club of America

In order to learn the techniques of marketing and merchandizing, DECA went on numerous field trips. These students also participated in a program which gave them training at stores in Eastmont Mall.
Aiding DECA members
with their learning was Mrs. Joan Goria.

Clubs unite

International Club

In order to unite cultural insights, the American Field Service, under the auspices of Mrs. Gail Johnson, and Youth For Understanding under the direction of Miss Elenor Lazansky, intermixed to create the International Club. One special event it held was a dinner in honor of Skyline's foreign exchange students.

Future Physicians Club

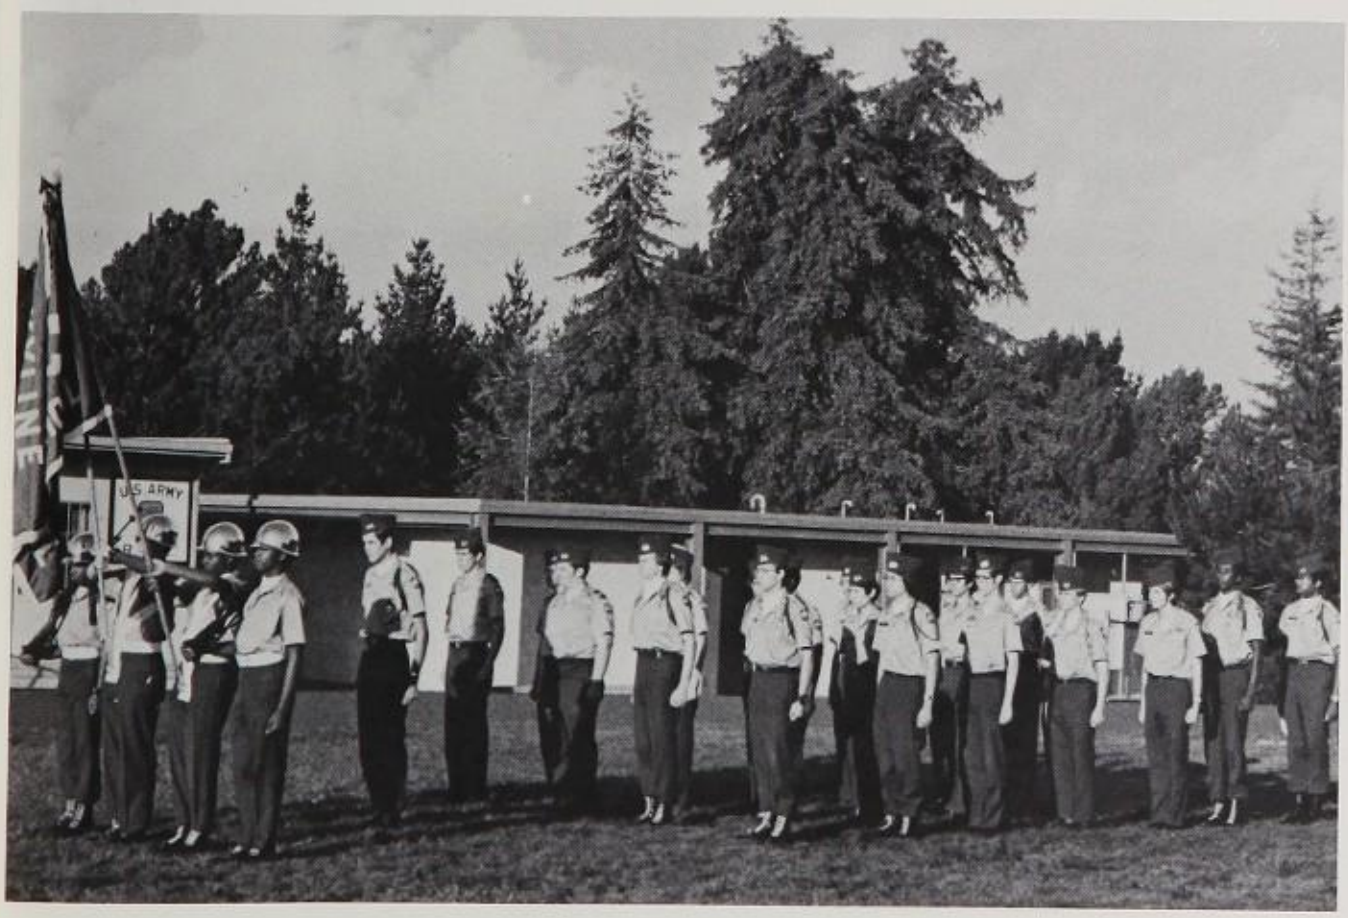
Due to the inspiring guidance of sponsor Mr. Wilbert Yuen, the members of Future Physicians Club had a beneficial year with its interests centering on the field of medical health science. Activities included lectures from knowledgeable guest speakers and various field trips including a visit to Oakland's Cerebral Palsy Center and the Stanford Medical Center.

Officer's Corp celebrates sixth year

Reserve Officer's Training Corps has completed its sixth year at Skyline.

New addition to the program was a 'cadet of the month' award.

One of the activities in which students participated was a Veteran's Day parade in San Leandro.



Waiting at attention for morning inspection is the Reserve Officer's Training Corps.

Ski slopes for everyone's ability

Ski Club

Among the ski slopes challenged by ski club members last season were Alpine Meadows, Bear Valley, Sugar Bowl, and Squaw Valley. Officers Robin Burns, president, Anne Scherer, vice-president, Danielle Alexich, treasurer, and Mike Simon, publicity, worked on selecting ski areas to fit every member's ability, from beginner to expert. Squaw Valley was chosen for the annual week-end trip, and to offset high costs, ski club members organized two paper drives in the summer to raise money. Ski club's sponsors were Mrs. Juliette Dunhum, and Mr. Clarence Stevenson.

Ski club officers Danielle Alexich, Sandy Simmons, Mike Simon, and Anne Scherer discuss the upcoming week-end trip to Squaw Valley.

Sunshine adds sparkle to crowning

Jubilant fans spur the team on to the 26-14 victory over McClymonds. Adding zest to the excitement are Melody Powell, Charlotte Utsey, Rosemary Williams, Rita Hargrave, Sandra Hammons, and Yolanda Williams.

Homecoming Queen candidates on review are Shery Casteel, Pam Sims, Rhonda White, Robin Heath, Ramona Dennis, Abbey Danzig, Danielle Alexich, Marsha Lee, and Valerie Tsang.

Song-girls awaiting the game are Julie Chew, Rita Stuckey, Patty Rohrkemper, Bev Oto, Denise Jeffery, Karen Carney and Nancy Sims.

New blocks accent the enthusiasm of lettergirls Rachel Early, Cinde Estrada, Nancy Taylor, Margie Sullivan, Bunny Sims, and Kathy Thompson.

Cheer squads inspire the team to victory.

Unusual mascot creates school spirit

Chuck, the new Titan mascot added to the spirit of the enthusiastic cheer squads
to bring about many smiles and increased excitement from the faithful Skyline rooters.
Created by the head cheerleader, songirl, and lettergirl
the mascot helped spur
the team on to many victories.

After seemingly endless hours of summer practice, the squads put together the original cheers and routines to perform during the 1972-73 season.
Red and white blocks and new stools added to the enjoyment of the unique cheers, while also helping to keep the spirit of Skyline alive.

Able graduates win honors

Scholarships earned this year helped many students further their studies. Many scholarships were won, as well as prizes and money. Certificates were also given for participation.

Many students competed in a "Prize Exam," sponsored by the College of Creative Studies at University of California at Santa Barbara. A senior won honorable mention, and received a cash prize. Other seniors placed high and received certificates of distinction.

Receiving the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award, a senior girl was chosen from the field of Homemaking all over the nation. Gemco Department Store sponsored a contest in which Skyline had one representative.

Chosen as a finalist in the National Achievement Scholarship Program was a Skyline senior. Westinghouse rewarded a Skyline senior with a scholarship for his outstanding work. Mrs. Juanita Thomas was responsible for making contests and scholarships available to all students.

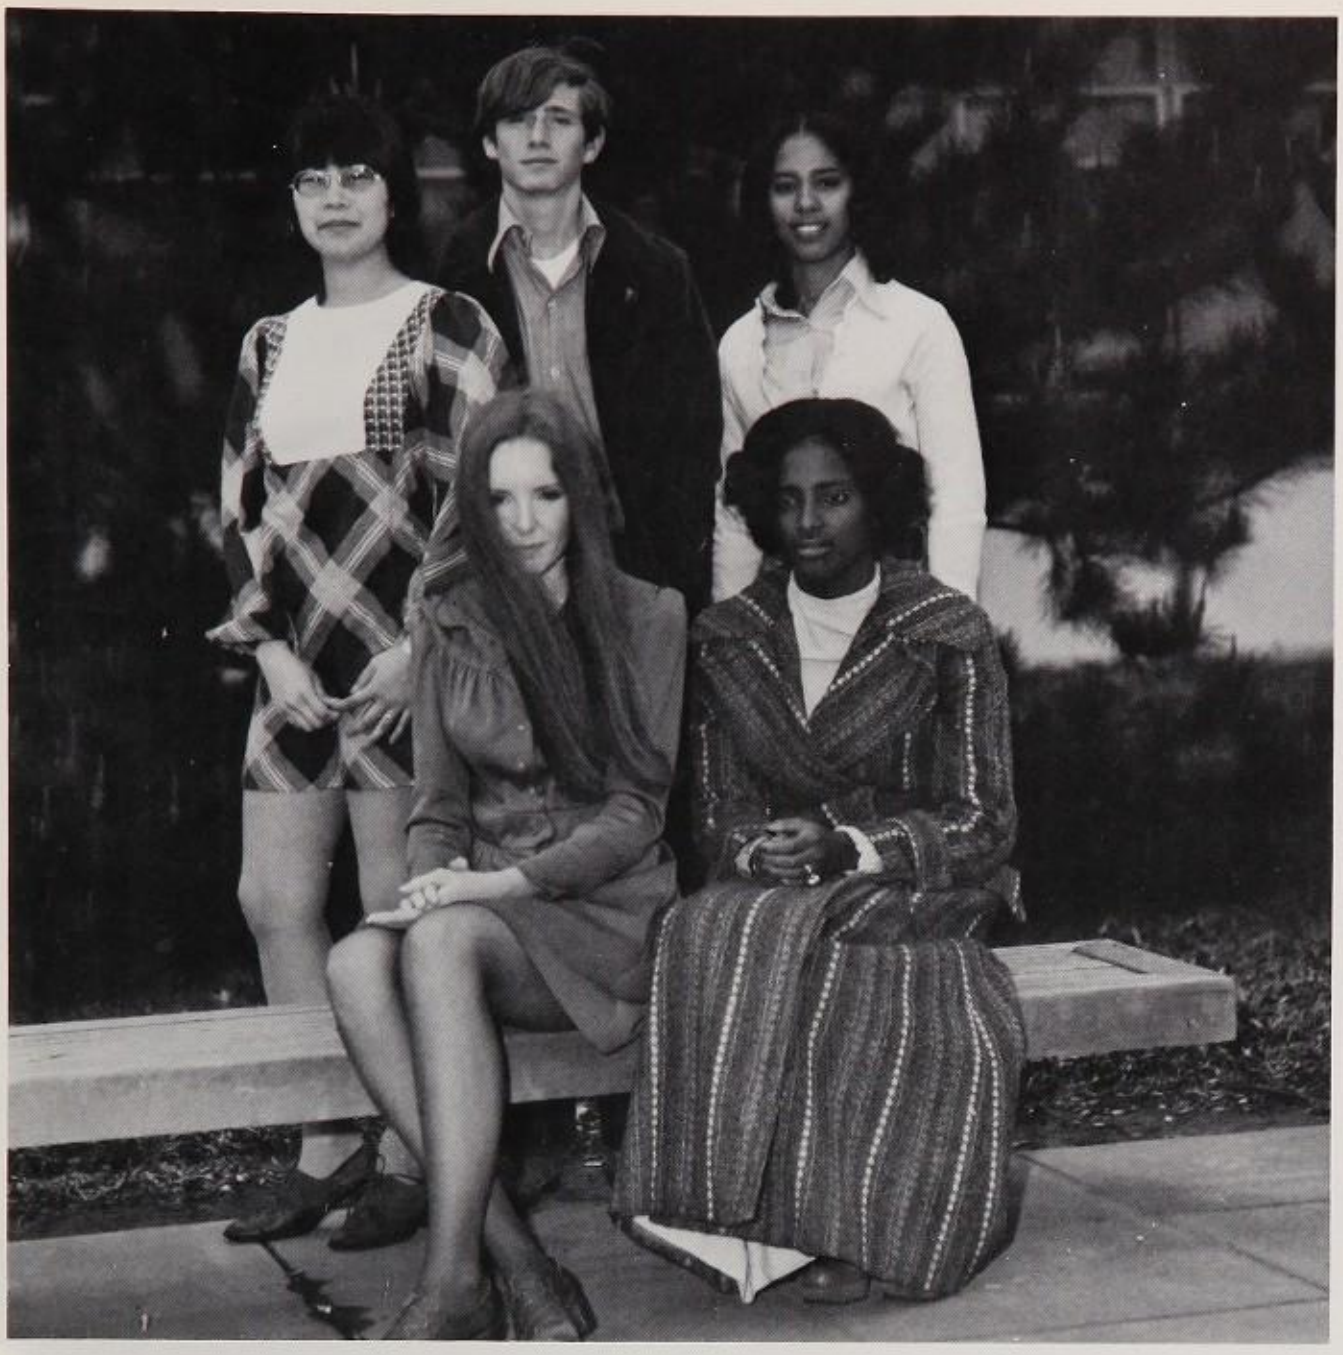
Seniors gain wide acclaim

Many Skyline seniors were chosen as outstanding in their fields. Among these students some were able to continue on in competition for higher awards. There were also awards such as the "Bank of America Scholarship" that were broken down into four general areas: Science and Math, Liberal Arts, Fine Arts, and Vocational Arts. The finalists selected went through interviews and group discussions before a panel of judges at the Hyatt House.

Two students were chosen for the Girls' State Award. One girl as the delegate while the other was chosen as an alternate. Skyline's Girl and Boy of the Year were also chosen to represent the school. Other awards given were Hertz Foundation Award, Gemco Award, and the Betty Crocker Scholarship.



Senior Steve Brittenham was a finalist in the "Bay Area Engineers" competion.

Indian child helped by club

Save the Children

Supporting an Indian child, Bernadette Narci, and visiting day care centers in the Bay Area were some of the activities in which the Save the Children Club was involved.

Z Club

Ushering for school events, making Christmas cards for service men, and entertaining at convalescent homes were some of the community services of the Titan Z club, which is affiliated with Zonta and sponsored by Mrs. Kathryn Allen and Miss Wilma Lorentz.

Members who met weekly to discuss new activities were Dave Stein, Anita Tilseth, Kathy Ferro, Barbara Raben, Kelly Baker, Cecile Cuttitta, Carolyn Searls, Valerie Chambers, Nanette Slack, Janice Vickers, and Cathy Veretto. (See club roster for other Save the Children members).

Minorities gain new insight

Asian Student Union

Asian Student Union members have made their club successful with many activities. Under the leadership of President William Poh, the club members raised money with candy and fortune cookie sales. Mr. James Wong sponsored the group.

Black Student Union

Without sponsor Mr. Charles Weeks for the first semester, the Black Student Union members organized themselves. The group participated in the Spring International Day for the second consecutive year.

Outstanding performances created from musical voices

Choir, Vocal Ensemble, and Girl's Glee, performed at many of Skyline's musical programs. They were all directed by Mrs. Joanne McKray.

Singing at both the Fall and Spring concerts at Skyline, the Choir gave outstanding performances.

Performing for many community organizations such as hospitals and convalescent homes, the Vocal Ensemble also sang Christmas carols at Breuner's Department Store.

Music adds to student life in many ways

First of many programs presented by the music department was the annual Fall Music Night.

Highlighting the year the Orchestra directed by Mr. Richard Adams accompanied the spring musical play "My Fair Lady."

Featured in the eighth annual Winter Band Concert, the Symphonic Band also performed at Skyline's Spring Music Night.

Student council initiates change

Student association members along with concerned teachers exercised their plans for extended lunch periods. The three short lunch periods were successfully transformed to two 50 minute sessions. This new plan allowed students and faculty to enjoy a more leisurely lunch period. Also newly established was a policy regarding student use of bulletin boards, circulation of printed materials and petitions, and the wearing of insignia. It allowed students to acquire knowledge of events, other opinions, and public and private causes right on campus.

Lower classes look ahead

Both junior and sophomore class officers worked diligently on planning activities and fund raising drives for their senior years.

Money making projects included suckers, hot chocolate and bake sales.

Activities sponsored by the junior class included "Bullitt," a movie, a ski trip, and a Valentine's Spirit Day.

Going over details for the Junior Prom are William Poh, Renata Gray, Dave Kovac, Ann Wilson and Rick Hanan.

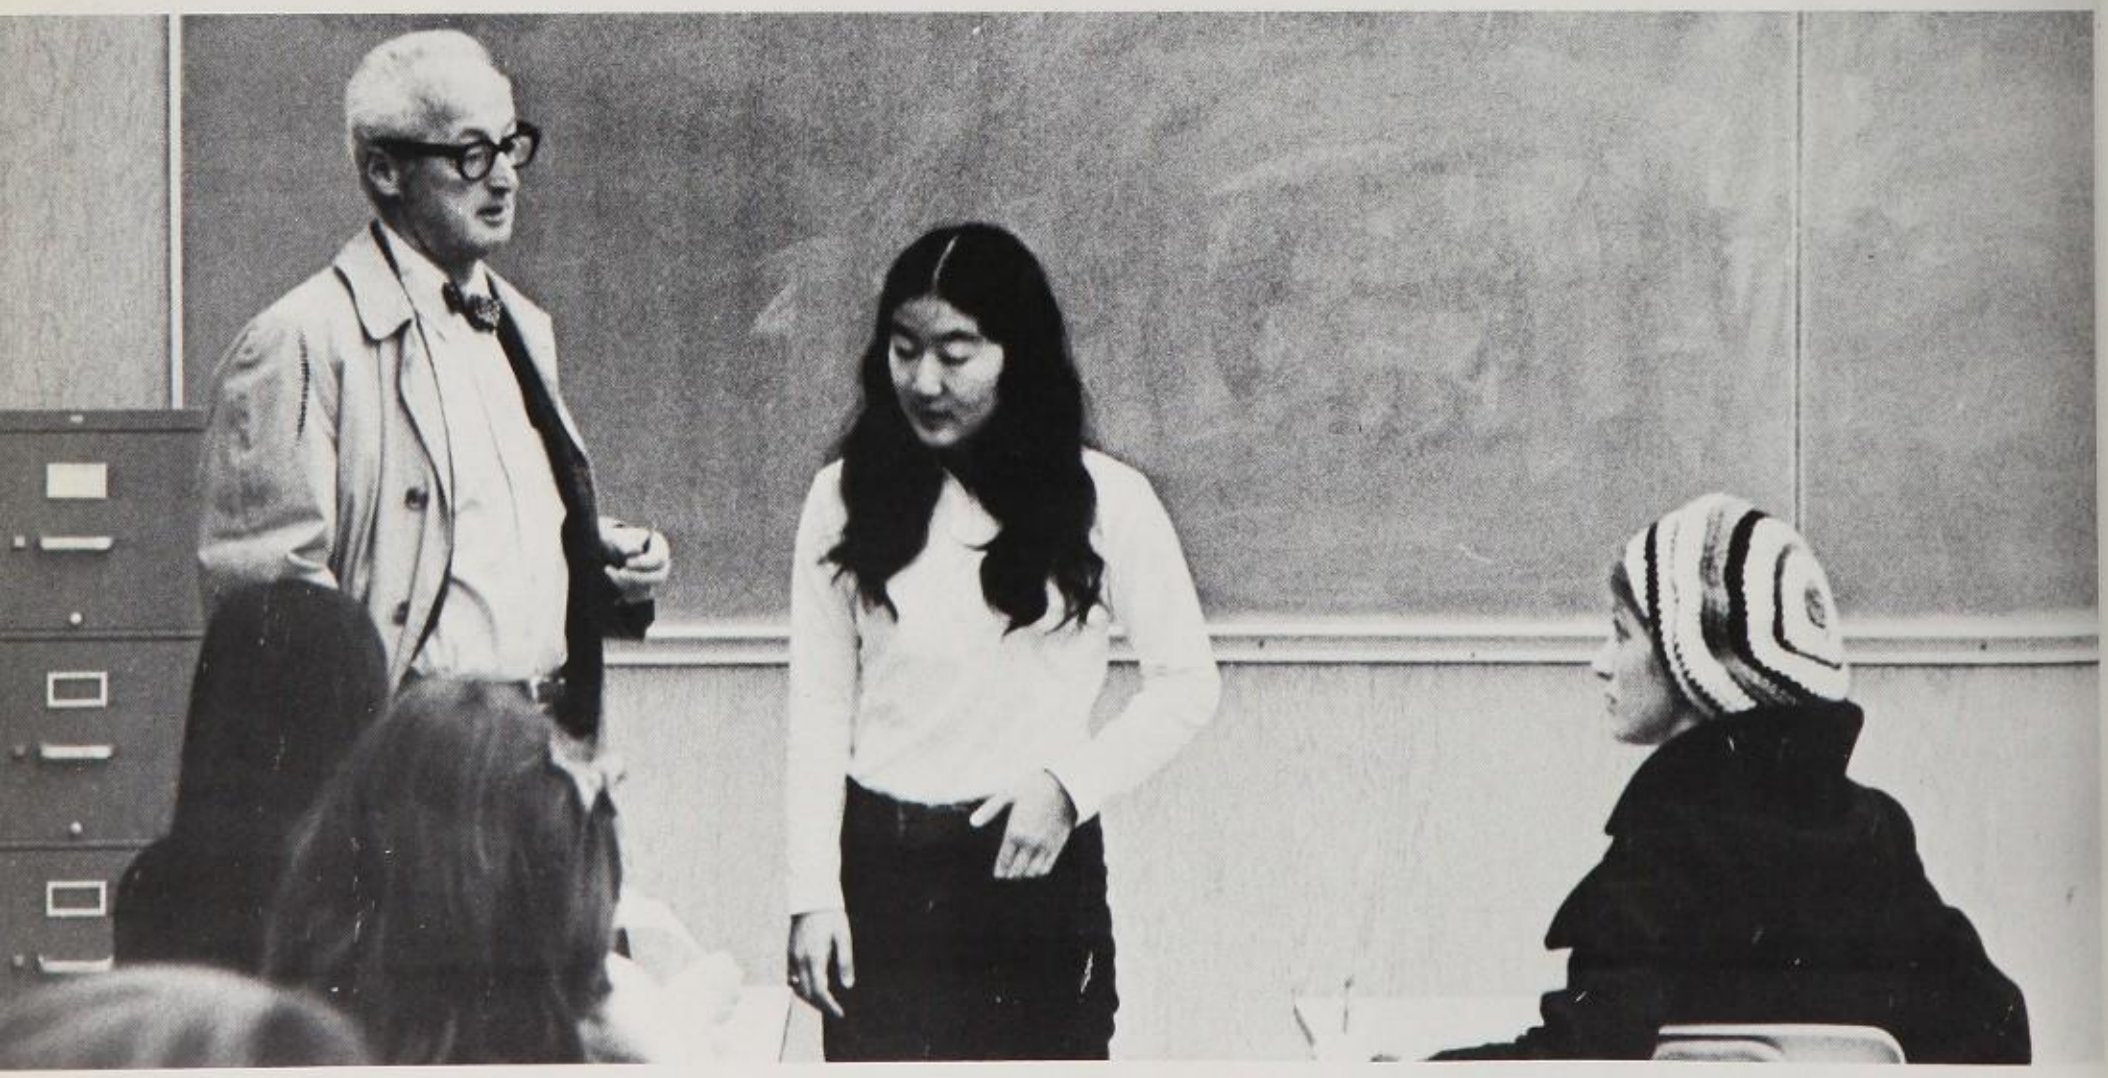
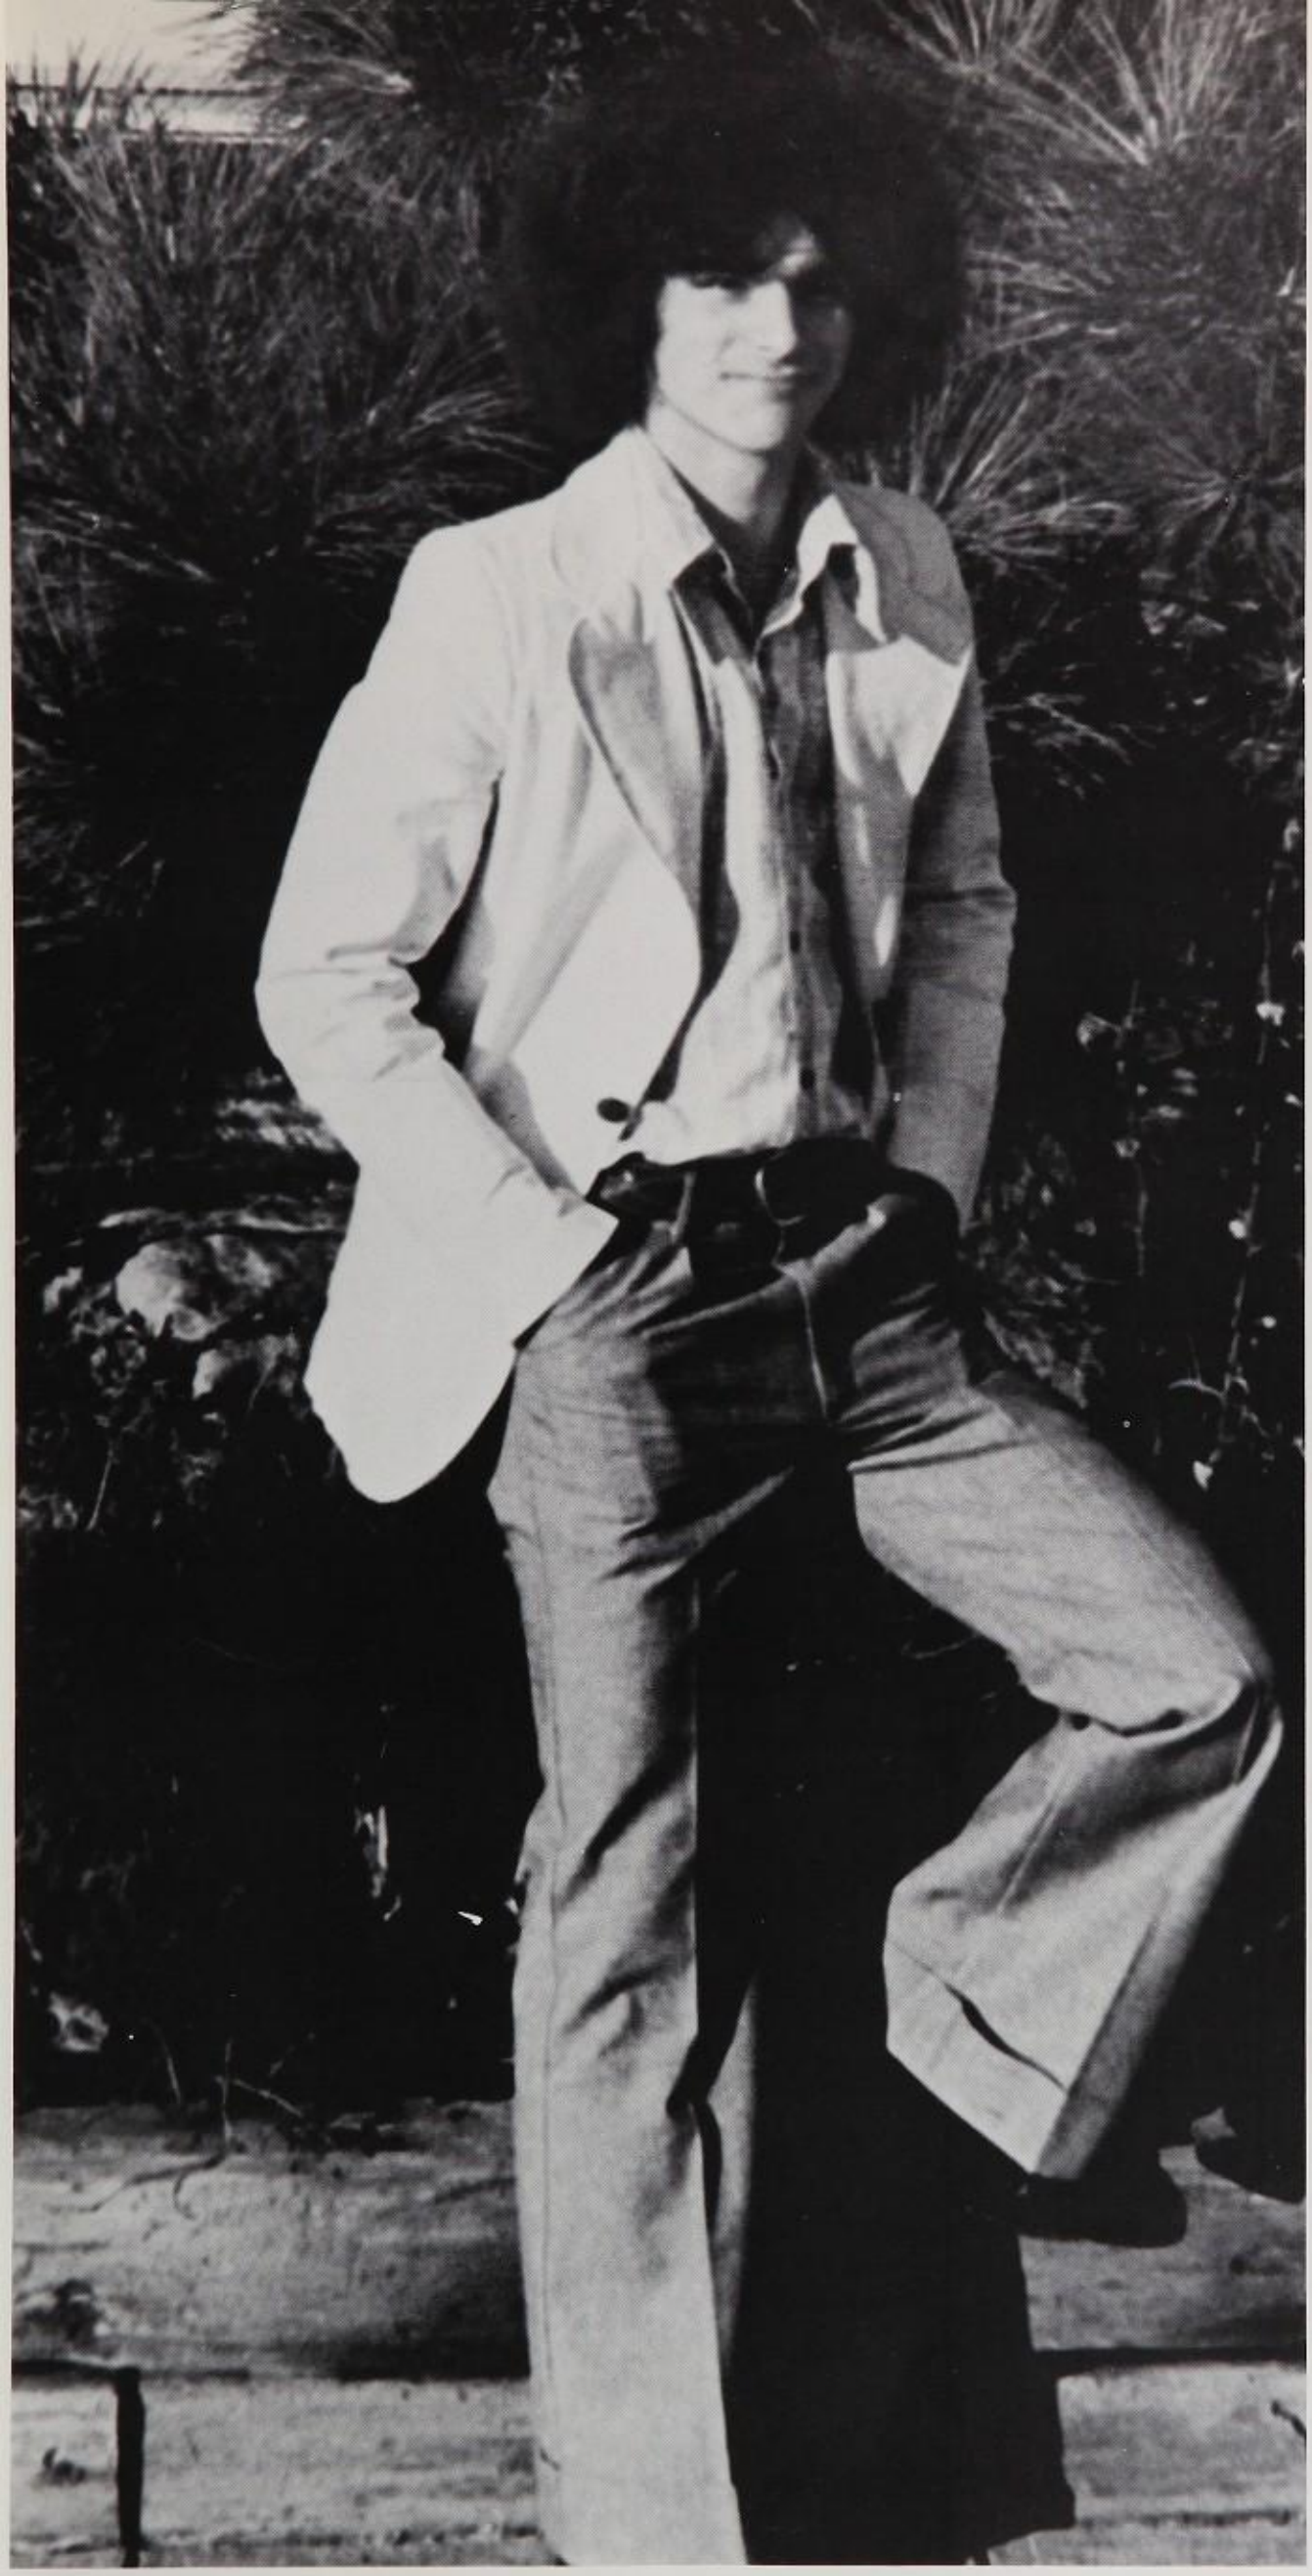
More early grads than ever before

Succeeding in making 1972-73 an unforgettable experience, senior class officers gave many hours of their time. A senior ball and a trip to Disneyland were decided upon by the senior class and kept the officers busy making arrangements. The class of '73 sold refreshments at the games and at fall and spring term plays. They had car washes, sold candy, and sponsored the KYA Oneders basketball game in order to raise enough money to have both activities. The senior picnic was changed to spring because the weather was nicer then. The class of '73 had 38 more January graduates than the 115 of last year's class.

Organizing the senior class directory took several after school hours from judge Lynn Rose, treasurer Stacey Baba, and secretary Roberta Lew.

Below: Senior class adviser Mr. Eugene Horwitz; and senior class treasurer, Stacey Baba discuss plans for the KYA Oneders game with class representatives Robin Chin, Becky Martin, and Robin Burns.





Omar Suer, senior class president, had fewer seniors to lead because of early graduation.

School days hurry by — only memories remain

I'd only dreamed of the days
when life would be an uncertain thing
But so quickly they have come
The halls and doors
and venetian blinds
will be forgotten soon
so soon
The sea of faces will ebb and fade to a few
But these will remain ageless
'though years pass
and 'though miles separate will remain near I'd only dreamed of the days when we would come to part so quickly they have come
So soon we arrive

The late happenings

Headlines were hardly unnoticeable in 1972-73. Phrases like "Munich massacre," "Skyjack in San Francisco," "McGovern drops Eagleton," "Freezing temperatures to continue," and "Nixon declares peace" shouted from newspapers, magazines, and were heard on television and radio newscasts, calling attention to history being made all over the world.

While students began filling out their fall schedules, tragedy befell the 1972 Summer Olympics, causing much soul searching into an age old and honored custom. The mourning of the seven Israeli athletes assassinated in Olympic Village hampered the joy of those competitors who won highest honors among those, American swimmer Mark Spitz, who received seven gold medals.

The Bay Area Rapid Transit began it's long-awaited service in time to take A's fans to the World Series at the Coliseum. After defeating the Cincinnati Reds, the champions wallowed in champagne and the glory of a victory parade.

December brought literally freezing weather to the Bay Area, the coldest recorded since 1930. Snow fell on campus for nearly one week, rain and bitter cold lasted for months.

For the first time, many Skyline students were involved in voting in the national presidential election. Eight days after his second inauguration, President Nixon declared an official end to the longest war in United States history and hundreds of prisoners of war came home from Viet Nam. Disaster struck Skyline January 31, when a former student set fire to the Art and Homemaking Building. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of equipment was lost in the fire. Among the cinders of the fire, a spark of initiative was found, and many forms of fund raising were planned and carried out. In May, an International Cultural and Arts Fair was staged to resupply the Art department. All-in-all, 1972-73 was a very exciting year.

Record-breaking snowfall hits Skyline in December.

Press association honors journalism students

Members of the Oakland Press Honor Association held their dinner in recognition of outstanding students March 1 at the Oakland Boathouse. The dinner was attended by journalism and publication students from the six Oakland high schools. Guest speakers, Ben Williams and Bob Wilkens, gave inspirational talks on careers in the news media.

Ben Williams of KPIX News and Bob Wilkens of KTVU Creature Features, both guest speakers, autograph programs for eager press students.

Arsonist's fire affects everyone

Shooting thirty to forty feet in the air, flames destroyed the east end of the 20 Building in the early morning of Wednesday January 31. Firemen arrived at five am and extinguished the flames from the art, homemaking, and cosmetology rooms. The extensive damage later estimated at $250,000 caused school to be cancelled for the day. Temporary arrangements were made to house the burned out classes. Principal David Swanson expects that the destroyed classrooms will be rebuilt by September.

Out of disaster and despair came a feeling of unity as students, teachers, and parents combined efforts to raise money to rebuild the art and homemaking departments. Contributing to the fire fund were individuals and groups. The Oakland Lions Club sponsored a contest in which all donations went to Skyline. The community worked with the faculty and students to organize a two-day International Art and Culture Fair which was held in May. All proceeds went to the fire fund.

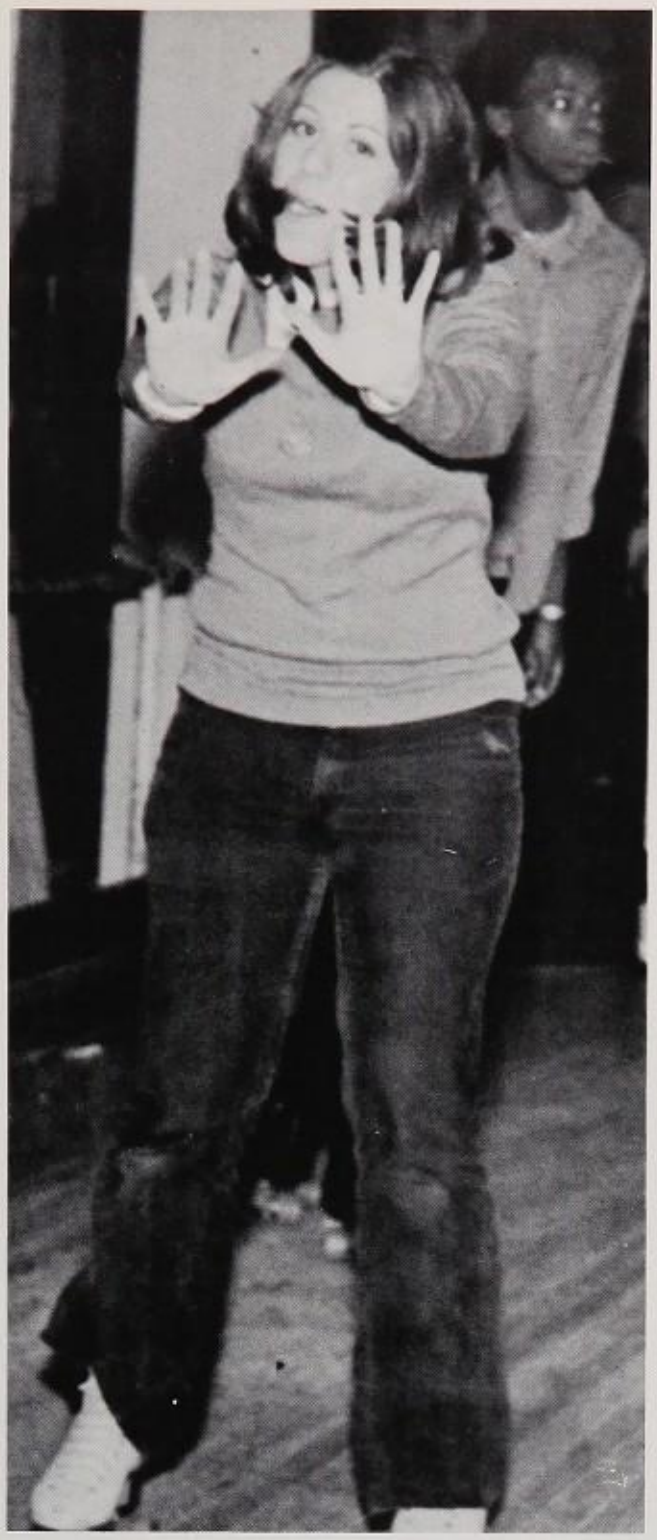
Below: Carrie Moto is helped to her feet by Chris and Pete Watson.



Class of '75 takes to skates for party

Rollerena in San Leandro was the scene of the Sophomore Skating Party on February 26. It was well attended and everyone enjoyed the night of skating. The party raised over $300, $150 of which went to the class of '75. The committee which organized the skating party consisted of Kellor Baker, Ted Parsons, Brian Purcell, Detra Smith, Margo Stricklin, Felecia Stuckey, Ramona Washington, and Mr. Eugene Horwitz and Mr. Henry Bianchi, advisers

Eula Lekas '75 doesn't quite succeed in escaping the camera.

Below: Sheila Jackson and George Howard take a spill amidst laughing friends.

Juniors show their spirit

Junior spirit week was full of activities, such as; a frisbee throwing contest on senior lawn, a pie eating contest and pyramid building on Overalls Day. Juniors started out their week with a traditional Hat Day and ended it with a 40's Day.

Sporting their overalls are Louis Dukos, Chris Ratto, Ron Whitmill, and Donna Seaman.

Prom theme is 'forties'

Dressed in semi-formal clothes, the juniors danced to the music of "Yesterday and Today." The candidates for Prom Queen were Denise Baty, Anne Wilson, Sherrie Wright, Linda Clark, Monica Wright and Sheree Washington. To highlight the evening, the class of '74 presented their queen, Anne Wilson, a dozen red roses. The setting in the redwoods at Sequoia Lodge completed the romantic evening.

Students spend their last days signing yearbooks.

Below: With the end of the year comes a frequently deserted campus.

Memories are not forgotten

With the number of hours cut by 180 the Olympian staff was hard pressed to get the yearbook out on time. Because of the school's loss of teachers the yearbook staff had only one period with which to work.

Special thanks go to:

Hal Matson and photographers for all their help;

Mr. Fred Dahlinger, yearbook company representative, for the time he spent with the staff;

Student photographers who always got the pictures in when we needed them;

Principal David Swanson and the vice-principals whose understanding was appreciated;

Secretaries who were always there with assistance;

Teachers who were continuously interrupted;

Custodial staff which was patient with the late night hours;

Mrs. Pege Rankin for the advice and the hours she spent with us;

And to all the students who made it possible to complete the book.

yearbook staff '73 turns over the heartaches, frustrations and the satisfaction of a job well done to the oncoming seniors

Linda
we had a fun year in Espanol with 1st Brian & then Potter-Gross! Not to mention miss Ramirez the sweet teacher. What a laugh. Well as it says memories are not forgotten cuz i sure know we can never forget Ramirez, Brian or Grosso famoso Pots I sure wish we could Well i hope you have a super-super nice summer & hopefully maybe we can get together some time Hope we have some classes together next year. Take care & stay the way you are

Andrea,
Well, it's another year gone by and summers a few weeks away. I can't wait! I'm really glad I got to know you and hope we have some classes together next year. Have a great summer! Luv, Corie kinda, well it's been a lot of fun in alg. class this year, but I'm glad its almost over. Well ever since Grass Valley I would be saying we've known each other and its been fun. Usually I would be saying 'but I hope to see ya next year, but I know I will, so have a good summer.

Jueng

Linda
Well the year is cure
we still have two years to go. Maybe I'll get to know you BETTER
next year. Have a nice summer, and try to not this fuck
up...
Bob 73'

Dear Linda,
well at last no more poetry!
also you'll be most glad to know that I have NO further intention of taking anymore Spanish, and if I do I'll try not to get the same class as you - thanks for putting up with me. sorry we never made it to the movie but we'll get to class of '44' some how. Take care, you're a dear person see you this summer love ya'
Frances

Linda have a fun Summer
I hope to go to Seattle
Bruce H

Linda,
It was nice meeting you. I hope we get to know each other better Leroy

Dear Linda,
Miss class to picture
I've got grade Don't I'm 1st conversation and Small vocabulary hard
Summer exam. Dave

Kinda sad,
Well, it's the end of another year. Good luck in the future and have fun over the summer.
Love ya.
